BUCKELEW SUICIDE PREVENTION HOTLINE

WHO WE ARE

WHAT WE OFFER

WHAT WE DON'T OFFER

Presented By: Richard Slusher

Hotline Volunteer and Trainer Since 1996

Hotline: 415-499-1100

WHO WE ARE - HISTORY

- The Marin Hotline started in 1971 and has provided telephone Crisis Counseling, 24/7, for over 49 years.
- In 1977, an additional phone line was added to provide Grief Counseling services to the County.
- In 2012, the Marin Hotline's service area was expanded to take calls from Sonoma, Lake, and Mendocino Counties.

WHO WE ARE – HISTORY

- The Hotline is also a member of the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline. People calling their 800 number are routed to Hotlines based on the caller's area code. We are routed calls from 415 and 707 area codes.
- The Hotline is accredited by the American Association of Suicidology.
- In 2014, the Hotline became a Buckelew Program.
- Last year, the Hotline answered over 12,000 calls.

WHO WE ARE - VOLUNTEERS

- The Hotline is primarily staffed by volunteers who work one 4-hour shift each week.
- Volunteers come from all walks of life, and are not credentialed counselors.
- Prospective volunteers must first complete 40 hours of training that includes lectures, simulated phone calls, and feedback.
- Prospective volunteers are then evaluated by the Training Staff to determine if they will be invited to serve on the Hotline.

WHO WE ARE - VOLUNTEERS

Prospective Hotline counselors must demonstrate the ability to:

- Create a trusting, empathetic connection with the caller.
- Ask direct questions about a caller's suicidality and take appropriate actions based on the answers.
- Sit with a caller's pain without getting overwhelmed.
- Refrain from trying to fix a caller's problems.
- Be non-judgmental.

OUR HOTLINE CALLERS

- Ages range from pre-teens to seniors. Teen callers have steadily increased.
- Different occupations and abilities.
- Loss of hope and feelings of helplessness are common themes.
- Depression is a common issue, but many callers have no diagnosis.

OUR HOTLINE CALLERS

- We have not experienced a significant increase in call volume related to Covid-19, but it has definitely increased anxiety and stress levels.
- We have regular callers who aren't suicidal, but call us to ground themselves to prevent escalation to suicidal thoughts.
- From 3% to 5% of our calls are “emergencies” requiring immediate action.
- An increasing number of people who call us are concerned about someone they know who is acting suicidal. We refer to these as Second-Party calls.

WHAT WE OFFER

- Provide a caring, trusting, and confidential place for people to talk about their crisis.
- A crisis, by definition is a short-term event. We focus on the current crisis.
- Act as a bridge to get people currently in crisis to a point where they are safe, and enable them to seek the appropriate long-term help for their issues.

WHAT WE OFFER - PROCESS

- Above all, we LISTEN.
- We employ Active Listening techniques where we not only hear the caller's words, but also identify the underlying emotions, and address those emotions.
- We give the caller the time to express their issues in a confidential, non-judgmental environment. We allow the caller to do most of the talking.
- Assess the level of Lethality/Risk of the caller by asking certain direct questions, and determine the appropriate course of action.

WHAT WE OFFER - PROCESS

- Work WITH the caller to develop a Safety Plan that they can use to refrain from acting on their thoughts of suicide. Being able to employ a Safety Plan at the onset of suicidal thoughts is a major deterrent to acting on them.
- In certain cases, we will follow up with a caller during their crisis to see how they are doing.

WHAT WE DON'T OFFER

Attempt to fix a caller's underlying problems.

- It simply doesn't work.

Function as an ongoing therapist.

- We are trained to focus on the crisis.

Act as a Chat Line for callers.

- There are other services that do that.

Text-Based Counseling

- Our counseling is done over the phone.

- Other organizations offer text-based counseling.

WHAT WE CAN OFFER CAREGIVERS AND AGENCIES

- Provide immediate aid to your clients who are having thoughts of suicide.
- Be a partner, as needed, in the continuum of care for your clients.
- Provide training and education to your group.
- Provide telephone Grief Counseling.
- Provide group counseling to people who have lost someone to suicide.
- Printed materials about Hotline and suicide prevention.
